

The no-call list rules should be tightened at the federal level not relaxed. My family appreciates Wisconsin's no call law and how it protects our privacy and allows us to enjoy the time we spend together in our home. If you want to standardize the law, use ours as an example. Thanks you for listening.